Disclaimer Information: There are no guaranties that the user name or e-mail chosen by the user will be available. Any information posted on the web space provided by CVNC is not the responsibility of CVNC, but instead the responsibilities of the user, which posted it. CVNC holds the right to disconnect the user at any time. Any illegal use of the Internet through CVNC will result in immediate disconnection and prosecution. I also understand and agree to the following Logon Limitations: CVAmerica.net unlimited access does not mean dedicated access! I understand that all end-users that are logged in and have no activity (are idle) for 20 consecutive minutes, will be disconnected from the service. Use of a ping or "keep alive" program, auto-emailing, or any other means to circumvent this process by any End-User is strictly prohibited and may result in account being terminated due to abuse! The determination of what abuse is shall be at the sole determination of Provider. I further understand that there is also a mandatory 4-hour continuous use session limit. This means that if an End-User is online for a continuous period of 4 hours, End-User is subject to an automatic disconnect. End-User may immediately dial back into the service after either type of disconnect. Provider reserves the right to adjust these limits or include additional limits as Provider feels is necessary to maintain network integrity. I understand if my account becomes past due there will be a $1.00 late fee applied and if my account becomes delinquent to the point that Computer Visions terminates my service due to non-payment, there will be a $10.00 Disconnect Fee added to my account and Computer Visions will report me to various credit agencies, Plus I will be responsible for any and all recovery fees. I also understand if I pay by check and my bank for any reason does not honor any check, I will pay in cash the bad check plus any applicable service fees. I understand that any changes to the Email addresses on my account are subject to a $2 charge per incident. I am aware that CANCELLATION or ANY CHANGES TO MY ACCOUNT MUST BE DONE IN WRITING WITHIN 5 BUSINESS DAYS PRIOR to BILLING. A change form will be available in the office (e-mails to billing@cvamerica.net from customers personal e-mail will be accepted); otherwise CVNC will consider your account still valid and unchanged.

I hereby agree to the terms and conditions of this agreement:
